

ISLAND LOCALS.

ABOUT TOWNS.

The Waialeale may be looked for on Thursday with the shipwrecked crew.

Heavy rain fell at Hilo and all through the district on the 21st, 22d and 23d instants.

Mr. J. J. Aubertin of the London Graphic had an interview with the King, September 21st.

The Marcora made a quick trip up to San Francisco beating the fastest time made by three hours.

Captain Phelps and Mr. Hilliard of the yacht Brunkhild were entertained at breakfast by the King last Tuesday.

H. R. H. the Princess Kaiulani, Princess Kaiulani and a party of friends lunched on board the yacht Brunkhild on Friday noon.

Representative Dole left for the Iwalani on Tuesday for Kani. Important private business took him off from his legislative duties.

Mr. W. Love for a long time connected with the Myrtle Boat Club has resigned from that club and proposes to join the Honolulu Club.

The Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Crahan returned to Honolulu on Saturday by the Likelike. They have been spending a vacation at Oahu on Maui.

The Legislature has settled down to hard work, and is beginning to slash at bills in fine style. It is becoming a regular slaughter of the innocents.

The St. Andrews Sunday school (second congregation) have sent for an organ for use in the school. The instrument will probably reach here in six months.

The Reformatory boys will appear in full naval uniform on the King's birthday. The uniforms are the gift of His Majesty. The cap has a gilt anchor in front.

Judge Hartwell has bought a property in South Natick, Mass., and has located his family there. The Judge will probably return to Honolulu for a visit early in the year.

Two weddings this week. To-morrow Mr. Frank Huxton will lead Miss Ward to the altar, and on Thursday Mr. C. A. Brown and Miss Irene H. will be married by Dr. Hyde.

The bankruptcy case of S. J. Levey & Co., was continued until Thursday next. Mr. L. A. Thurston appears for Mr. H. Macfarlane, Mr. Charles Greighton for S. J. Levey.

The P. C. Advertiser has again changed editors. It is stated that Mr. Gilbert, a recent arrival from the Colonies, is now wielding the editorial shears vice A. Johnston resigned.

The quarterly exhibition of the Sunday schools was held at Kawaiahae and Kaunakapili churches. At the former Mr. Berger presided at the organ and the music was most successful.

So Yang, the Chinaman who was brought up for firing at Mr. Fagerroos, was sentenced on Monday by Judge Bickerton to six months' imprisonment and $100 fine. An appeal was noted.

The Post Office had a busy time the last few days. Three foreign mails and a large island mail had given the officials all they would do. They were equal to the occasion, however.

The Hon. J. L. Kaulukou was serenaded on Wednesday evening by the Band which was sent down by command of His Majesty. A number of the Marshall's personal friends were entertained at the same time.

On Friday evening His Excellency H. A. P. Carter, Hawaiian Minister to Washington was entertained at dinner by His Excellency George W. Merrill, United States Minister Resident and Mrs. Merrill.

George Glendon, late school-master at Pahala and an ex member of the Legislature appeared before Chief Justice Judd on the 21st instant on a charge of gross theft. The venue was ordered to be changed from the Third Judicial Court to the Supreme Court, October term.

The festive buglar burglets and there is none to say him nay. A store near the Chinese theatre was entered last Tuesday evening, a watch and some money being abstracted and on the following night Ann's coffee saloon on Maunakoa street was broken into and some provisions carried off.

The Roman Catholic Sisters held a fancy fair on the 21st, which the children of the St. Louis College and a number of friends attended. The elegant articles prepared for sale all went off like hot cakes and the result was highly satisfactory to the Sisters. The funds were raised for a charitable object connected with the Sisters' work.

The bark Elsinore arrived September 23rd, sixty-one days from New Castle N. S. W. The vessel brings 1,000 tons of coal for the Hawaiian Government. Captain Jenks has a fine collection of Australian birds. One parrot with a flaming red breast is a most striking bird. The Captain politely shows his collection to those who call to see it.

On Sunday an old native woman, eighty years of age, while returning from Kawaiahae Church was run over by a brake, in which were Alex. Arthur and Edward Langley. Dr. Webb was sent for, and after examination, considered that there were hopes that the patient, though suffering from severe shock, would recover. The occupants of the brake were arrested for furious driving, and admitted to bail in the sum of $500 each.

Like many another well-meant institution in Honolulu, the Athletic Association has gone the way of all flesh. On the evening of the 21st it was decided to disband and wind up the affairs of the Association. How many things calculated to give healthy amusement to all have gone the same road. Where is the Maile Club, the Amateur Musical Society and for the matter of that the Amateur Dramatic Society. Though the latter is not disbanded, it might as well be for all the amusement it affords.

A heavy freshet came down Nuuanu Valley on Friday morning. Heavy rain fell during the night, starting about 11 o'clock of the night. At 6:15 of Friday morning the water came down with a sound like thunder and aroused most of the residents near the Second Bridge. The stream rose within three feet of the heavy freshet of April 1884 when it burst over the banks and rushed a perfect torrent down Nuuanu Avenue as far as Mr. J. O. Carter's residence and flooded the quarter mile store destroying part of the house.

Annual Camp Fire of G. A. R.

The fourth anniversary of the organization of the George W. De Long Post, No. 45, of the Grand Army of the Republic, took place at Harmony Hall in King street, on Saturday evening, Sept. 25. A company of about forty comrades and invited guests assembled on the occasion, including the following:

Commander, R. W. Laine; Senior Vice Commander, Sam'l McKeague; Junior Vice Commander, Wm. H. Place; Adjutant, James F. Noble; Quartermaster, R. J. Greene; Chaplain, Theo. H. Boehme; Officer of the Day, V. V. Ashford; Officer of the Guard, J. D. Conn; Sergeant Major, F. L. Clarke; Sentry, Capt. Adler; Comrades, Geo. W. Merrill, Jona. Austin, Thomas Campbell, Thomas Carey, J. A. Crahan, C. H. Dickey, C. P. James, W. R. Lawrence, Joseph F. Lovejoy, W. M. McCandless, John Ioss, Rudolph Schreiber, Geo. W. Smith, W. F. Williams, Sherman, Ferrill, La Pierre and G. W. Yarrick. As guests of the occasion there were in attendance, Hon. A. F. Judd, Chief Justice and Chancellor; Their Excellencies P. P. Kama, Minister of Finance; and J. T. Dare, Attorney General; Hous. W. C. Parke and H. M. Whitney; Dr. Tanser and Messrs. H. E. Avery, George Castle, Mort. Oat, E. H. Hobard, W. H. Unger, George Strateneyer, Walter Hill, of the Bulletin, Gilbert, of the Advertiser and D. Logan, of the Herald.

In the outer room was spread on a long table, the repast, consisting of camp fare, baked pork and beans, coffee and hard tack, served in bright shining tin plates and cups, the dessert consisting of sandwiches and ginger ale—all which were enjoyed as remembrances of camp life, with its joys and hardships. After the ration had disappeared, Com. Laine opened the postprandial exercises with a short address, in which he welcomed all present to this celebration of the anniversary of Geo. De Long Post at its camp fire, held for the purpose of renewing old associations and forming new ones. This Post is the only one outside of the United States and was formed four years ago.

The King granted permission for its establishment and they were very grateful for the favor. At the National Encampment in San Francisco, reference was made in appreciative terms to the Post for its success, and to His Majesty for allowing them to form an organization of this kind, a peculiarly American association in a foreign country. His Majesty had been very kind to them on all occasions, and he was sorry he was not present. When they bought a lot in the cemetery the King gave them five guns, one for each corner and one for the center. This society was not like the Masons or Odd Fellows. When its members die out it will die out. The only way of perpetuating its memory was by forming organizations of "Sons of Veterans," and he trusted that before another year they should have one here. He also hoped that they would have a "Ladies' Relief Corps," which was a very useful organization. He hoped the members would talk these projects up with the result that at no distant day they should be accomplished.

We have not space for the full report of the proceedings, and insert the programme of the sentiments proposed by Com. Lane, which were responded to as named:

"His Majesty the King." Band—"Hawaii Ponoi."
"The Queen, the Heir Apparent, and the rest of the Royal Family." Band—"Aloha Oe."
"The President of the United States of America." Band—"Hail Columbia." Response by Comrade G. W. Merrill, U. S. Minister Resident.
"The Governor of Oahu." Band—"Hail to the Chief."
"The American Army, Navy and Volunteers." Band—"Red, White and Blue." Response by His Excellency J. T. Dare, Attorney General.
"The Grand Army of the Republic." Band—"Star Spangled Banner." Response by Quartermaster R. J. Greene.
"The Mothers, Wives and Sweethearts of the Boys who Saved the Nation." Band—"Home, Sweet Home." Response by Comrade F. L. Clarke.
"The Military Forces of Hawaii." Band—"Sold Soldier Boy." Response by Officer-of-the-Day V. V. Ashford.
"Our Invited Guests." Band—"They are Jolly Good Fellows." Response by Chief Justice Judd.
"The Blue and the Gray." Band—"Auld Lang Syne." Response by H. E. Avery, of Memphis, Tenn.

Advertising Cheats.

"It has become so common to begin an article, in an elegant interesting style,

"Then run it into some advertisement, that we avoid all such,

"And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest term as possible,

"To induce people

"To give them one trial, which so proves their value that they will never use anything else,"

"The Remedy so favorably noticed in all the papers, Religious and secular, is

"Having a large sale, and is supplanting all other medicines.

"There is no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of Hop Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability

"In compounding a medicine whose virtues are so palpable to every one's observation."

Did She Die?

"No!"

"She lingered and suffered along, pining away all the time for years,"

"The doctors doing her no good,"

"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."

"Indeed! Indeed!"

"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery,

"From a complication of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and Nervous debility,

"Under the care of the best physicians,

"Who gave her disease various names,

"But no relief,

"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it.

Prosecute the Swindlers!!

If when you call for American Hop Bitters (see green twigs of Hops on the white label and Dr. Soule's name blown in the bottle), the vendor hands out anything but American Hop Bitters refuse it and shut the vendor up. You would a viper; and if he has taken your money for anything else indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindle, and we will pay you liberally for the conviction.
